

Project Profile- Screed – Baskerville House, Birmingham

Project Details

Baskerville House is a conversion of Grade II listed 1930s building in Birmingham City Centre to high quality category A offices. The development has been awarded a 'very good' BREEAM rating.

Lyttag[®] 4/8mm lightweight aggregate was used for lightweight floor screeds within the project to keep imposed weight to a minimum.

Info

Project: Baskerville House, Birmingham

Date: 2006

Client: Targetfollow Birmingham Ltd

Architect: Rolfe Judd Group Practice, London

Structural Engineer: Buro Happold, London

Project Manager: Mace Ltd.

Main Contractor: Alfred McAlpine Project Services

